

FINDS MISSING SISTER DEAD IN CITY HOSPITAL; KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Young Woman Struck by Car
Near Home Dies Unidentified on Blackwell's Island.

Four hours this morning before the boat from Blackwell's Island left for Charlies Pier at Twenty-sixth street and the East River at 7:15 o'clock a man tramped nervously up and down the pier, and he was the first to board the steamer when preparations were made for the start. He was Sigmund Gross of No. 321 East Seventy-fifth street, and for most of the night he had searched for his sister, Miss Josephine Gross, who had left their home at 9 o'clock last night to go to a delicatessen store and had not returned.

It was after 1 o'clock this morning when Gross learned at the East Sixty-seventh street police station that there had been an automobile accident near his home and that the girl victim had been taken to the City Hospital on Blackwell's Island. The description of the girl, whose name was not known, was like a description of his missing sister.

When the boat landed to-day he rushed to the hospital. They told him that the girl had died at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

Miss Gross, intent apparently on her purchases, had hurried across First avenue directly in the path of William Riley's taxicab. Riley, on his way from his home, No. 330 East Fifty-third street, to a call in Ninety-sixth street, had sounded his horn and shouted at the girl, but before he could stop his car it had struck her. Riley stopped his car as quickly as he could and picked the girl up.

ASTOR BABY HELPS SAVE POOR BROTHERS

Rich Little One Sends Money to Aid Diet Kitchen's Work
During Summer.

John Jacob Astor 6th is one of the members in good standing of the babies' department of the New York Diet Kitchen Association, which had its annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of the President, Mrs. Henry Villard. The Astor baby sent $100 last summer to assist in the work of saving other babies during the hot weather.

Edith Kingdon Drexel and her little brother, Anthony Drexel, are also members. Cousin Eileen Decies had been invited to join the club, but her letter must have been lost in the mail, because Mrs. Villard has not heard from her yet. It is proposed to bring the membership of the babies' league up to one thousand during the coming year.

$2 Nightgowns Trimmed with New Embroidery Beading at $1

In the White Sale

Have you seen this beading, which is also an edging? It is a new idea this season—and a very clever one, for it gives the opportunity for using wide ribbons in a conservative and effective way. It also makes the ribbon an important part of the trimming.

These Gowns are of fine nainsook, fashioned with low, round necks, which are entirely encircled with this new ribbon-run beading—their short sleeves are also finished in the same way.

Nightgowns with Hand-Loom

Embroidered Yokes, $1.50

These yokes are of such fine batiste, and the embroidery is so dainty that at first glance it seems as though they were hand-embroidered. Of course, these yokes are joined with nainsook and lace and there is a narrow yoke of lace across the back.

$2 & $3 Lingerie Blouses in New York

Pretty collars are the keynote of their beauty and newness—the Cowl, the Revere and the new flat styles.

The new frills, which are narrower than those of this season, are important, too. But, the fact that some of these Blouses are trimmed with hand-crocheted Irish lace, and others are trimmed with a very good imitation of filet lace, and some have inset waist centers of net, and that a large number of the Blouses are of embroidered voile—explains, in a few words, why these are such extraordinary Blouses at $2 and $3.

650 Very Smart Winter Coats For Women and Misses At $5

LAST WEEK we purchased about 1,000 of these Coats from a manufacturer who was very heavily overstocked—we sold these Coats at $10, and they lasted scarcely any time at all, because at a glance, women knew them to be $15 and $18 Coats.

THIS WEEK the same manufacturer sent for us and asked us to duplicate the purchase, which would mean taking the entire balance of these Coats ($650).

OUR BUYER SAID—"Too near stock-taking—but if you will sell me these Coats at a low enough price for us to have a Wonderful $5 Sale—why send them at once."

Now Read the Sequel
THE COATS ARE HERE—and we will keep our word by selling them tomorrow at $5 each.

There are Boucles, Cheviots, Zibelines, Chinchillas. Mixtures—some lined and interlined, quarter-lined and trimmed with fancy buttons. Some with handsome velour collars, sizes 14 to 44. We invite you to come early rather than be disappointed.
